

ASSIGNMENT 1 - WEB GAZETTE STAGE 2

Make a web page that looks like this using Fraise. Make sure to read text, and customize with your own name and information where appropriate:

MADISON
AREA | TECHNICAL
COLLEGE

Madison College Web Gazette

Madison College Web Design • Spring Semester 2011 | Madison, WI

Betty Rubble Voted Best New Web Design Student

Breaking news from Madison College: Betty Rubble has been voted Best New Web Design Student for the Spring 2012 Semester. It was a tight competition, but Rubble proved she had what it took to lead the pack.

The other students in the competition describe Betty as a natural. "This student clearly has the skills needed to succeed in the market today," said instructor Slaghoople.

Betty herself says "I am thrilled an honored to accept this award! I'd like to thank the Academy, my fellow students, my third-grade teacher Mr. Hoopmeister, the guy on the bus with a tinfoil hat, the nice lady who works at the Mobil station and my mom! And to all the cats in sweaters everywhere: keep it real, you guys, and thank you for being "

Nee Betty McBricken, Betty Rubble worked as a cigarette girl/waitress at a resort. There she met and fell in love with her husband Barney. Betty and Barney married shortly thereafter. They currently live in Bedrock with their son Bamm-Bamm. Betty enjoys rock bowling and long walks on the beach.

Sweater Cat to Appear in Web Class

Students studying web design will encounter cats in sweaters from time to time throughout the semester.

Of course, not every student will want to use a photo of a cat in a sweater on their web page. Students will also have the opportunity to explore methods of finding low-cost or free images for use on web pages.

Students studying web design will encounter cats in sweaters from time to time throughout the semester.

Of course, not every student will want to use a photo of a cat in a sweater on their web page. Students will also have the opportunity to explore methods of finding low-cost or free images for use on web pages.

Students studying web design will encounter cats in sweaters from time to time throughout the semester.

Of course, not every student will want to use a photo of a cat in a sweater on their web page. Students will also have the opportunity to explore methods of finding low-cost or free images for use on web pages.

Underwater Web Design

Someday, the ability to create beautiful web the best spot. The classrooms at Madison Ce equipped with state of the art Macintosh can round out the experience. Even the library at access to the software outside of their class.

What's in this Semester?

- Hand-written HTML
- Learning CSS
- Dreamweaver CS5
- Working with Images

Where Can I Get Help?

1. Lynda.com
2. Webmonkey.com
3. w3schools

Where can I Buy stuff?

- Apple education store
- Wisconsin Integrated Software Catalog
- Madison College Bookstore.

Who are my classmates?

- Barney Rubble

© 2012 Madison Area Technical College

Stage 2 Checklist

- CSS style applied to body text
- CSS styles applied to heading elements
- CSS style applied to horizontal rules
- CSS style used to color background
- CSS used to create a margin around the body element
- CSS used to style links states
- Everything else still working properly
- Do your tags close? Do you have alt attributes on images?
- Proper naming conventions for files and directories followed - no spaces; only letters, numbers, underscores, hyphens and periods; use of lowercase letters.
- All files inside of directory called YNH_Webgazette